PINK COAT'S AMERICAN DERBY.

Woodford & Buckner's colt Pink Coat won the twelfth American Derby, worth $9,225 net to his owners and skillful trainer Pat Dunne, at Washington Park yesterday. 25,000 people saw the colt capture the rich stake. W. Martin's skill, more than Pink Coat's equine superiority, was the cause of the victory. The speed of Pink Coat was applied at just the right time and was strong enough to land the prize by a few inches. Martin's horsemanship was the feature of the race. Our figures show how the horses raced for the prize. Martin became a strategist down the back stretch. At the half mile ground he moved up his colt and in his advance sharply interfered with Isabey. The latter in turn bumped into Warrenton. This incident may have affected the result. As it was, Pink Coat showed himself to be a colt of quality.

The heavy thunderstorm of Friday night settled the dust, cleared the atmosphere and did not spoil the Derby. After the rain subsided a strong wind sprang up, and that and a bright sun did much to remove the effects of the drenching the track had received.

The first race fell to Macy with little effort. He took the track in the first quarter and held it to the end. The Devil was characteristically hot on his trail along the backstretch and around the upper turns, but failed at the end. Mr. Schorr did not back his horse. He feared the going. The public considered Macy the good thing that he was.

Scratched out of the Derby to start in the second race, Traverser was an odds on favorite for the second race. Ben Hadad outfooted him in smart fashion.

Hugh Penny was in a soft spot in the fourth race and won all the way.

Jinks won the last race by great flight of speed through the stretch. She is a smart filly.

The tabled history of the American Derby is as follows:

1895, 6, and 7 no racing.

J. H. Woodford, of the firm of Woodford & Buckner, was present to see Pink Coat win the Derby. He came up from Kentucky to see the colt run. The condition of the track did not please him for he feared that the colt would not be able to handle the weight in the heavy going. Neither he nor Pat Dunne would venture an opinion as to what the colt could do in mud. The rapidity with which the track dried was pleasing to both. When it was suggested that Leonatus could run in the mud, Mr. Buckner remarked: "Leonatus outclassed his company so much that nobody could tell whether he could run in the mud or not." After the race, while Pat Dunne was receiving congratulations, Bob Smith recalled Pink Coat's race at Harlem, saying: "Just before the horses went to the post I said to Pat, 'It looks as if Donna Rita had this lot cinched,' and Pat answered, 'I don't know. I have a fair horse in here myself.' I should think he had." Pat was of course pleased to see the colt he had trained win, although wearing the colors of another. Mr. Buckner was jubilant. Pink Coat was bred by Woodford & Buckner, who own his dam. His sire died at the farm June 15,

"Buck" Franklin, who trains the Baker & Gentry stable, arrived at Washington Park Saturday morning with Uarda and Dan Rice. After studying the weights in the Latonia Oaks the owners decided not to start Uarda, so Mr. Franklin started for Chicago a day earlier than he expected.

Eugene Leigh got back from New York Saturday morning. He attended the sales and races there and of them said: "Racing is in flourishing condition around New York. There is a lively interest and the demand for good horses and good looking yearlings was never better. The sales reminded me of flush times. Whenever a good looking yearling was brought into the ring buyers went after him as if money grew on trees. As for racehorses, there is only one in training. When Hamburg is around, the others are selling platters. I saw him do the most wonderful thing a horse ever did. He jumped off with the track and nearly broke my watch. He went the quarter in :23, three furlongs in :35, half mile in :47, five furlongs in :59, three-quarters, pulling up—mind you—in 1:13. The seven furlongs was—walking in—run in 1:27. Official timers did not agree with me, but I believe I am a pretty good timer. Hamburg is the only racehorse in the world. No matter what Mad-den got for him he didn't get half enough."

THE NEW BETTING SYSTEM.

The eastern system of betting, or rather a modified form of it, was in operation at Washington Park yesterday. Thirty-one bookmakers did business in the ring and field books were plentiful. Stands were occupied and slates were up, but two slates were used to enlighten those who wished to invest. The slates over the box had fastened on them, as usual, cards giving the names of the starters together with weights and riders. On "the block" alongside of each bookmaker stood an assistant, who either held in his hands or had fastened to his vest a small slate on which was a small card giving starters, weights and jockeys, and having odds marked on the margin of the slate opposite the names of the starters. No odds were quoted by the book-maker. Whenever a bet was accepted the bookmaker handed a numbered ticket to the customer and then called the bet and the number of the ticket. While the bookmaker's clerk made a note of the bet and the number of the ticket given to the maker of the bet, the latter generally recorded his wager on the back of the ticket or a memorandum book. Whenever a man won a bet he handed his ticket to the bookmaker's cashier, who promptly cashed it. In this way betting progressed smoothly, and some heavy transactions occurred. Some bookmakers did considerable business with well-known customers on credit. Among those doing business were William Riley, Gus Buhm, Charles Smith, Budd White, Max Blumenthal, Leo Mayer and Riley Grannan.

Grand Yearlings to Be Sold.

The Woodard & Shanklin yearlings to be sold at Tattersalls the evenings of Monday and Tuesday next are in Chicago. The will be on parade today, tomorrow and Tuesday. A finer lot was never sent into the sales ring. Col. W. S. Barnes, of the Melbourne Stud, thinks his Bramble colt out of Lillian Lindsay by Hindoo, a stake winner herself, will bring as much as any yearling colt sold at auction this year in the West. He also claims that the Jim Gore—Bamboo colt and the Jim Gore—Bacchante colt are two of the most magnificent yearlings that will come from Kentucky in 1898. The entire Melbourne lot will be sold the first thing Monday night.

Winner—B. c. by Himyar—Grace Lee.
Start fair. Won driving. Hilee ran a good game race, is improving and was lucky and best handled. The Gardener looked to be a winner in the stretch, but was weakly handled at the finish. He was probably the best. Lodi closed a big gap in the last quarter and finished strongest. Dr. Parker had no chance with the ride he got. He took the long route and dislikes weight. Great Neck had no chance either with his jockey. He was closing fast at the end. This colt needs strong riding and a distance. Indian stopped after showing much speed. Merry Heart was overweighed and eased at the end. Has not much class. The start and the mixup on the elbow gave the others little chance even if they were capable.
Scratched—Himtime, 115; Dr. Fitzsimmons, 106; Lyric, 99.
Overweights—Ben Lodi, 2 pounds; Dr. Parker, 5.

Winner—B. c. 3, by Falsetto—Cachuca.
Start fair. Won driving. George Boyd was lucky and finely handled. He has sharply improved and can go a route. At the distance Tremargo was the best. He got away poorly and was weakly handled at the end. The horse is very good, but uncertain on account of a bad temper. He requires strong handling. Blue Devil is an improving colt. He closed very stoutly. Watch him. He is ready to win in his own class. Prince Auckland is in good condition, but belongs among cheaper ones. Caldron is improving. Watch him. Imperator's weight contributed to his sulking in the stretch. He is a coward with a wonderful turn of speed, and if lucky will win in good company. Mainstay is uncertain. His legs are bad. So is his wind. Bon Ino stopped at the end. He dislikes weight and was outclassed.
Scratched—Maceo, 140; Cleopatra, 138; Kinnikinnick, 130; Swiftmas, 130; Hanwell, 117.

Winner—B. f. 3, by Tenny—Fair Vision.
Start fair. Won driving. Miss Tenny likes weight off and got away badly and was easily the best. Sunup was waited with too long and took the long route. He ran a grand race and should have won under the conditions. Julius Caesar got bad handling and was shut off at the half. He took the long route too, and finished strong. He is a much improved horse and favors moist going and a route. Handball—favored in every way—ran a poor race. He is out of form. Her Own ran a good race. Defender lacked speed throughout. He got away badly though. Watch him. Doggett is of no present account.
Scratched—King T, 103; Rappahannock, 96.

Winner—B. c. by His Highness—Carrie W.
Start fair. Won easily. Jean Beraud was best, although lucky throughout. He is a grand colt. Kingdon is a very good horse, although he acted badly at the post and got away last. He was shut off twice on the elbow and finished like a lion. He was easily the second best, and with an equal break and jockeys reversed might have pinched or beaten the winner. From a time standpoint the race is a bad one. Mr. Phinzy was killed off the first part and appeared to be badly beaten even for third place in the stretch. But he came again. This is a good colt. He will improve; is a stayer and very game. Miller ran a good race, but is a quitter. Glenheim is of no present account.

Winner—B. h. 5. by Logic—La Sylphide.

Start straggling. Won handily. Semper Ego began slowly, was hustled throughout, saved ground and was lucky. The hot pace in the teeth of a terrific wind storm killed off the pace-makers. Ego wants a longer route to be at his best. Domitor is a much improved horse. He finished in extra game style. Watch him. Tragedian got a bad ride and took the long route. Watch him, too. He is only a fair horse, but has so far not fulfilled his 3-year-old promise. George Keene was practically left. He closed grand throughout, and ran out near the end under pressure. The colt has little class at the best and is uncertain. Isidor got an atrocious handling, was killed off by pacemaking, and is a good horse. Buela will at out do her next race unless in first-class company. She showed a great burst of speed and was eased at the end. She, too, got a bad ride. Maceo was overweighted in this company and was outclassed. He ran a good race. Scratched—Ornament, 129; Lehman, 113; Dr. Black, 98; Caldron, 97.

Winner—Ch. g. 5. by Duke of Magenta—Picture.

Start good. Won easily. Scarlet, favored by the weights, was in wonderful form today. He is at his best. Decapod, aided by light weight and the fast pace, after waiting, came strong at the end. He was only the third best. He swerved at the last jump impeding Trillion and was justly disqualified. Trillion with top weight ran an extra good race. He was carried along too fast and stopped at the end. He is also at his best. Baby Bill not of much account. Pat was short. Watch him though. He ran well until he fell.

Post 18 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second well in hand; third and fourth driving hard. Macy was far the best of the field. He was at home in the going and showed that his recent defeat by The Devil was a scratch. He is a horse of some class. The Devil ran his race. He is a good selling player. David Tenny needed this race. Tab him from now on. He likes a fast track and barring Macy outclassed the others. Bromstone will not do at all. Heigh Ho had early speed.

Winner—B. c, 3, by Hindoo—Alga.
Post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won cleverly; second driving hard; third with something left at the end. Ben Hadad got the best of the start. He did not need it, though, to win. The early pace was terrific and Clawson, on the winner, cleverly evaded it. He was on the best horse the way the race was run. Traverser did his best as he is. He is not game and would not respond to Shields' punishment in the stretch. Evidently his hard winter's campaign has dulled the colt's speed. The winner is a good colt, especially in soft going. He is a full brother to Macy, too. Tab Whitcomb closely. When Caywood saw that he was beaten he gave the colt an easy race. Yuba Dam, well recommended, ran a fair race. Claret Cup had a lot of speed, but went all to pieces in the stretch.
Scratched—Bromstone, 96; St. Callatine, 106; Algol, 125.
Overweights—Yuba Dam, 2 pounds.

Winner—B. c, by Leonatus—Alice Brand.
Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won in a hard drive. Isabey had something left at the end. Martin rode Pink Coat skillfully. Caywood handled Warrenton perfectly. Warrenton was perhaps the best colt. He would have won in another stride. Pink Coat was tiring badly at the end. Fifty yards out he was clear of the field. It was a pretty piece of riding on Martin's part. He rode a terrific finish from the jockey board to the wire. No complaint can be made of Caywood's ride. He had some bad luck in the race and it counted a lot at the end. Mirthful is not a good colt. He faded away to nothing at the end. The track was in his favor and he had no excuses. Isabey was a good horse. Knapp saw he was beaten at the sixteenth pole and eased him, up. Pingree ran a disappointing race. He seems to lack speed. Midian is in the same boat. So are Bannockburn and Eva Rice. The latter's race was a joke.
Scratched—Ed Farrell, 122; Traverser, 125.

Post 16 minutes. Start good. Won easily; hard drive for the place. All Caywood had to do was to sit still on Penny. He got nervous, though, on the turn and urged the horse. Braw Lad ran a good race. He stood a long drive in the stretch. Tab this fellow. He has speed and courage. Alvarado II acted badly at the post and was the cause of the delay. Morte Fonse was running fast at the finish. He is in good form. Charley Christy ran below the notch. He needs a fast track to do his best. Crowhurst was too light to properly ride Paul Kauvar. He needs strong handling. Forte ran a bad race.

Winner—B. f, by Albert—Hoo-doo.
Post 8 minutes. Start good. Won in a long, hard drive of three. Jinks ran a game race. She was under punishment the entire length of the stretch. The filly stood the punishment like a good one. Tab her. She is a real clever filly. Queen of Song ran a greatly improved race. She was well played, too, at a liberal price. Josephine B. had bad luck in the race. She was bumped into and jostled a lot at the start but finished very strong. Her race is better than the figures show. Onomastus was not equal to the occasion. Watch Souchon. She had a world of speed but could not carry it to the end. Rosavannah is a bad actor and is inclined to bolt. Greatland was away badly and never had a chance.
